

Well, here we are at the end of another half term and we have packed so much in to the few weeks since our Easter Holiday. This week has been a busy one too. Year 5 had a fabulous day at Churnet Valley Railway; we had two class assemblies, our Governing Body were in school undertaking learning walks, holding meetings and Mr. Knight was seeing parents at his regular drop-in session; the PTA met about Fun Day and myself and the staff have been busy recovering from the Year 6 sleepover last Friday night! We had a fabulous evening with lots of lovely activities for the children and raised money toward our new library and we all really did enjoy ourselves.

This weekend sees the start of the Muslim Holy Month of Ramadan and I wish all of our Muslim families all the very best for this, the most important festival in their year.

Whatever you do during half term week, hope the weather stays fine and that you enjoy it.
Have a great weekend and we will see you on Tuesday 6th June when school reopens to pupils..
